BISHOP MONTGOMERY ARRIVES.

Will Administer Confirmation at Two Churches To-Day.

The Right Reverend George Montgomery, Catholic Bishop of the Diocese of Monterey and Los Angeles, Cal., has arrived in the city. During his stay here he will reside at the Kenrick Seminary.

The Bishop will remain here until June 1, and during that time will administer confirmation in the Catholic churches of the city. This morning he will confirm the children at the Holy Name Church and in the afternoon he will administer the same at St. Xavier's Church, Grand and Lindell avenues.

There is an impression prevalent that Bishop Montgomery came to St. Louis to take charge of this diocese during the absence of Archbishop Kain. Bishop Montgomery says that he is not here for that purpose, and that the Right Reverend Henry Muschler, Vicar General of the diocese, is in charge of the ecclesiastical affairs. Bishop Montgomery will only officiate at purely episcopal functions, and subject of his visit to St. Louis, he says, is Catholic Indian schools and negro missions. During his lecture at the different Catholic churches.

HEROISM REWARDED.

Legion of Honor Medal for an American Girl.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.
Indianapolis, Ind., May 5.—Charles H. Bundy of Marion has started a subscription for Miss Jennie Creek of Mill Grove, Blackford county, to enable her to accept the invitation of the National Humane Society of France and attend the French Exposition at the request of that organization.

In 1891 Miss Creek, then but 16 years old, was playing by the Panhandle river near Mill Grove, when she discovered that one of the bridges was on fire. Taking off her red flannel petticoat, she snatched the World's Fair medal, and thus saved many lives. On the trail were a number of prominent Frenchmen, who were returning East from the fair, and when they reached France the child's heroic deed was rewarded by admitting her to membership in the French Legion of Honor. Some weeks ago she received an invitation to be the guest of the National Humane Society at the Paris Exposition. Mr. Bundy expects soon to have a sufficient amount to pay Miss Creek's expenses.

Centrally Teachers.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.
Centrally, Mo., May 5.—The members of the Centrally Public School Board met this evening and employed the following teachers for the ensuing year: Principal, W. A. Mohr; assistant, E. S. Patterson; assistant No. 2, Miss Amanda Wallace; No. 3, Miss Mary Foster; No. 4, Miss Malissa Stewart; No. 5, Miss Myra Wright; No. 6, Miss Laville; No. 7, Miss Kate Carpenter; No. 8, Miss Jennie Connell; No. 9, Miss Nettie Summers; negro schools, J. H. Williams and Bertha Kidd.

Left Three Stores.

Petersburg, Ind., May 5.—A fire which started in a livery stable early today
